MESSAGE STORIES: EXPLORING COMMUNICATION THROUGH TOUCH

by Andrea Muir with Flo Longhorn (2011) [UK£ 16.00]

Loads of stories to use on the clothed body, exploring communication through touch for special learners and the young and elderly - a curriculum on the skin! There are 30 stories including 'Come Dancing', 'Ice Cream Parlour', 'Under the Sea' and 'Electricity', each describing full resources, massage movements and extensions into more general areas, all linked to the theme of the story.

I love this book, it has a wealth of ideas in. I use it a lot.

STORY MASSAGE

info@storymassage.co.uk

The Story Massage online course offers you flexibility to study from home at a time and a pace to suit you. Do you live abroad? Are you juggling work and children? Do you find it hard to travel to one of our face-to-face day courses? The Story Massage online course, hosted by Lorraine Murray from Connected Kids, covers the same material as the face-to-face course and your tutors are Mary Atkinson and Sandra Hooper, co-founders of Story Massage.

I personally recommend at least one person in a setting attends this course.
